

Remote Paid Internship

Youth Migratory Bird Education Instruction and Community Outreach

For your internship (credit or non-credit), join the Willamette-Laja Twinning Partnership, which is binational and has strong cultural opportunities. Bilingual students especially encouraged to apply!

Our watershed partnership between Rio Laja, Central Mexico and the Willamette River Oregon and engages river restoration professionals, university students, and youth for cultural connections to benefit shared migratory birds and their habitats in both river basins.

Intern Project Opportunities (intern may select 1 or more preferences):

1. Working with existing Willamette and Laja partners, instruct dual-language outreach materials for the families/parents of the youth education program, Aves Compartidas engages.
2. With input from the Willamette-Laja staff, and elementaries in Oregon and Mexico, create family-focused communication formats and templates that can be sustained long-term.
3. Assist the partnership with outreach into the Portland Metro area as we engage more schools/partners.

Anticipated Workload & Stipend:

$2,000 total / 200 total hours

Fall term – Winter/Spring term (≈10 hrs/week)

Desired Qualifications: Strong Spanish skills preferred, written and oral. Demonstrated experience and coursework in communications, education, multicultural experiences, local community work with Latino/a culture, and enthusiasm for learning new skills.

To apply: Apply by Friday, September 2nd. Please send your resume and a cover letter to willamette.laja@gmail.com as one PDF. Please address the following in your cover letter:

- Why are you interested in this position?
- What do you bring to the project, and what do you hope to gain from the experience?
- Please indicate your level of Spanish language skills, written and oral.